You can be in Lawless America...The Movie - Documentary about Government Corruption to be filmed in All 50 States

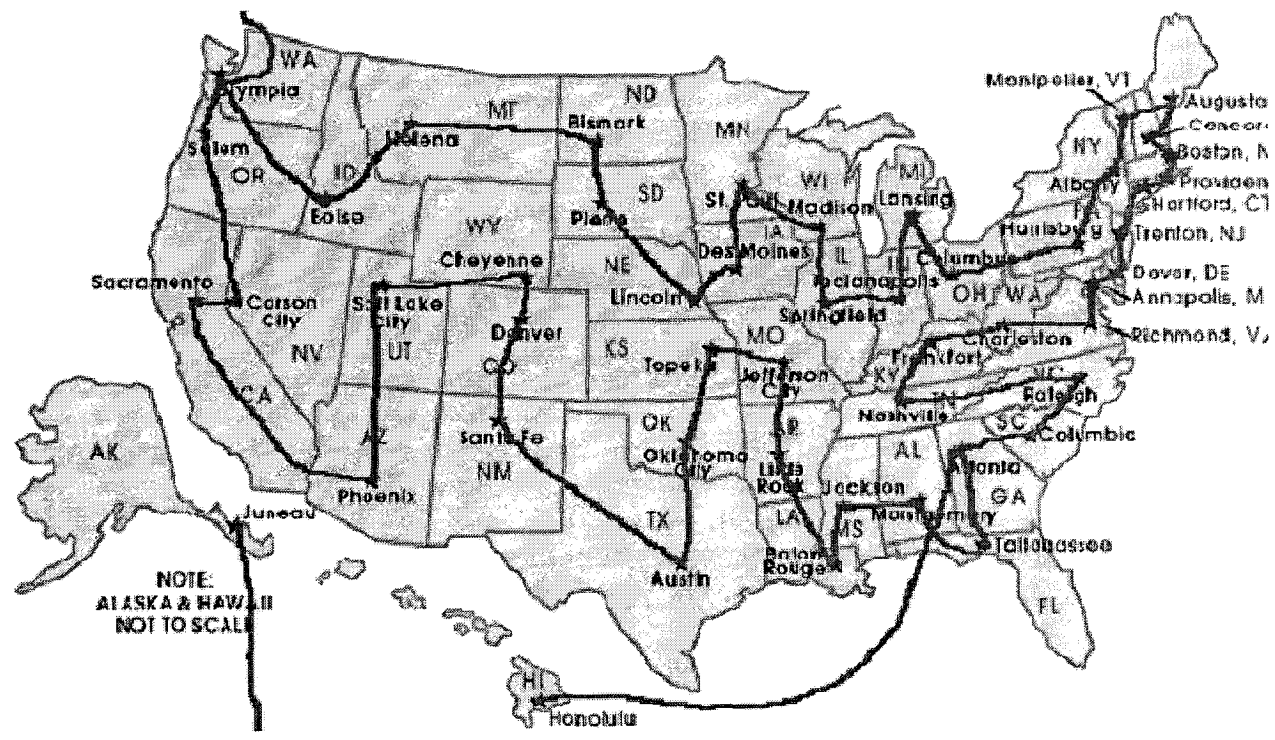

Sunday, 12 February 2012 00:00 William M. Windsor

We want YOU to be in LAWLESS AMERICA...THE MOVIE, a documentary about judicial corruption and government corruption. The movie will be filmed in all 50 states and will feature at least one victim from each state.

The movie will be a Lawless America Production with all proceeds donated to GRIP (Government Reform & Integrity Platform). Screenwriter Denise Loughlin has volunteered her services, and we will be looking for all types of help with the movie. It is our hope that this movie can educate many, many people about the reality that America is broken. This article has been updated, so click here.

The plan is for me to hop in a unique vehicle and drive to all 50 states filming interviews with victims in every state. We will visit every state capital. Much of the filming will be done in front of courthouses or the capitol buildings.

This map shows the itinerary -- starting in Atlanta and heading West. From Olympia, Washington, we will head up to Juneau, Alaska. Upon the return to Atlanta, I will fly to Honolulu as the 50th state. The trip will take 127 days.

The itinerary has been carefully planned to allow one weekday for protesting at the courthouse and the capital in each state. I have driven to all 50 states previously on one continuous trip called Round America, so I know what it takes. If we can get the preparatory work done in time, this schedule would enable the trip to be in DC for the Fourth of July. 1

Driving in an attention-getting vehicle " antique hearse or police car or big bus " with attention-getting signs.

Filming a "movie."

Inviting folks to turn out to be in the movie! Everyone who shows up on the courthouse steps gets in the movie and gets their name in the credits.

Posting to YouTube daily, so people can follow the trip each day with video reports.

Petitioning at the county courthouse in every capital when we are in town.

Have someone in each state try to line up one or more speaking engagement.

Should be media-worthy. Local and maybe national.

The website can show the itinerary and maps showing the route as it is planned and taken.

The movie can reach a significant audience, and if we do a great job, the audience can be really, really significant.

Interviews Needed

We need to interview people with excellent stories of government corruption and judicial corruption. I have entered the names of people who I would like to interview, but we need to identify many more, and we need to be sure we interview those with the best stories. Please email me at bill@lawlessamerica.com if you would like to be interviewed, or if you can recommend people. Please try to send me names, address, telephone numbers, and email addresses.

Help Needed

We need people with motion picture production skills to volunteer their skills. This will be a unique project, and it will look good on a resume, but there will be no pay to anyone. All revenues generated will be donated to GRIP. Especially helpful will be people who can volunteer to help with the production work in each capital city; we will need a camera operator, lighting assistant, and audio assistant at each stop. We will also need one production assistant who can ensure that we get talent waivers signed by those who appear on camera.

The best way to do this most effectively would be if we had an RV or a "Tour Bus." If anyone has something to donate, that would be spectacular. If we had an RV or a Tour Bus, we could work as we travel; we could also eliminate hotels and motels.

I can do it alone, but it would be great if some folks would volunteer to join up for a week or more at a time to help out and share driving.

A Public Relations person will be needed to send out news releases and coordinate media coverage. My wife and I got a lot of media coverage on our 2003 50-state trip, but it would have been much better if someone had been handling it for us.
