AFFIDAVIT OF WILLIAM M. WINDSOR DATED JUNE 28, 2013

I, William M. Windsor, the undersigned, hereby declare under penalty of perjury:

1. I am over the age of 21, am competent to testify, and have personal knowledge of the matters stated herein. I provide this affidavit to be used in this matter and in any other legal proceeding.

2. On May 30, 2013, an attorney purportedly acting for DEFENDANT ALLIE LORAIN YAGER OVERSTREET ("DEFENDANT") filed a MOTION TO STRIKE PLEADINGS.

3. There is no entry of appearance on file from this attorney, and I have not received any such notice of appearance.

4. No such Entry of Appearance has been served on the PLAINTIFF, and no such Entry of Appearance is shown on the Court Docket.

5. The MOTION makes an unsubstantiated assertion that the PLAINTIFF did not provide a “short plain statement showing that the pleader is entitled to relief,” but I did.

6. The Statement of Facts in the PLEADINGS is only 26 pages. The PLEADINGS are verified, so they also serve as a sworn affidavit under penalty of perjury, signed before a notary.

7. The PLEADINGS simply recite facts. The only reason they are as long as they are is due to the massive defamation and other wrongdoing by the DEFENDANT. The case law on Rule 55.05 seems to address instances where insufficient information is provided. This is not the situation here. The PLEADINGS meet the requirements.

8. ATTORNEY O’CONNOR falsely and maliciously claims the PLEADINGS are “redundant and a verbose diatribe of immaterial information.” There is nothing redundant. The PLEADINGS are not verbose – simple statements of fact. There is nothing whatsoever immaterial.

9. I prepared the PLEADINGS to the best of my pro se PLAINTIFF'S ability.

10. I have researched Rule 55.05 in relation to the terms redundant, verbose, and immaterial, and I can find no appellate decisions in Missouri to indicate that this is a valid motion. The DEFENDANT failed to cite ANY case law to support this MOTION.

11. DEFENDANT failed to file a motion to make PLAINTIFF'S PLEADINGS more definite and certain as I believe is required by Missouri law.

12. I have been diligently attempting to obtain needed discovery, but I have been denied those subpoenas by the Clerk of the Court. A motion to compel the Clerk to provide the subpoenas is pending with the Court as well as a motion for extension of time to respond to this MOTION TO STRIKE PLEADINGS. I am filing this RESPONSE as a hearing on the motion for extension cannot be heard until July 16, 2013.

FURTHER SAITH AFFIANT NOT.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed this 28th day of June 2013.

William M. Windsor
